Volume 1, Issue 1

Summer 2015

Thank you, Hilary!

A heartfelt thanks goes to Hilary Carlson for all she has done for Region 5 and the National NAWGJ. Her contributions range from organizing the National Symposium in Chicago, keeping our states on the road to fiscal responsibility, keeping records of our CPE'S, to handling athletes' petitions into regional meets. We thank you for your years of service.

Welcome Candace Alvery Kentucky SJD

Candace Alvery attended her first State Judging Directors Meetings in Broomfield, CO July, 9—12. Her fellow SJD's welcomed her. She is excited to work with her new board. Thanks to Michael Crowe for his years as SJD.

Note from NAWGJ Webmaster, Judy Hoeflerlin

Regional Meets

If you are a Level 10, National or Brevet judge and are interested in being considered to judge the Level 9/10 Regional you must fill out the application posted on the Region 5 USA Gymnastics website. Click on JUDGES on the top bar to find the application by September 1, 2015

At the current time the exact format for the Level 7 and the Xcel Regional Meets has not been decided.

PIF Forms can be found in the same place on the Region 5 website. They must be completed by all judges to be considered for State & Regional meets by September 1, 2015.

Impossible is an opinion, not a fact.

National Board Meeting— Broomfield, CO

Region 5 was well represented at the National Board Meetings. Along with our 5 SJD's - Linda McDonald IL, Judy Kemp IN, Candace Alvery KY, Debbie Campbell MI, and Lori Powell-Basinger OH, - Judy Dobransky, National Librarian, and Judy Hoferlin, Website Master were in attendance. Constitutional and Operating Codes issues were addressed. Robert's Rules of Order were reviewed. Five Year Plans and Financial Reported were updates. GotoMeetings were demonstrated. A reminder that EDUCATION is always our focus.

NCAA Update -

The JAS data base has been cleared. Judges will be able to enter their profile information and availability from August 25—September 25, 2015. The test of the Rules Modification for Colleges will not be taken until December this year.

Welcome to our three new assigners—Sue Kane, OH, Jennifer Sampson, MN and Jenna Karadbil, NY.
